

AFRICAN AMERICAN
LEADERS
FOR TOMORROW

July 23-26, 2025

California State University
Dominguez Hills

The African American Leaders for Tomorrow (AALT) Program is a four-day residential summer program held on the beautiful CSUDH campus. Current California high school sophomores and juniors are hand-selected to participate in leadership workshops such as civic engagement and deep exploration into the legislative process. Students will experience dorm living and community dining for a curated, age-appropriate introductory college experience—all at no cost to families!

REGISTRATION NOW OPEN: bit.ly/AALT2025

scan me for more info!

APPLICATION DEADLINE - APRIL 14, 2025

 Student Eligibility:

- Current California student
- Current sophomore or junior in good academic standing with a 2.5 GPA or higher
- Commitment to leadership and group participation

 Application Requirements:

- Current high school transcript
- Two signed letters of recommendation (one from a school official and one from a community member not related to the student)
- Two essays (300 words max.)
- Photo of applicant

 Important Dates

- March 3, 2025: Application opens
- April 14, 2025: Application deadline (no late submissions)
- May 9, 2025: Students notified
- July 23 – 26, 2025: Conference held at CSUDH

All meals, lodging, conference materials and transportation during the conference are included at no cost to participants or their family. Transportation to and from CSUDH will be provided for participants residing outside of Los Angeles and Riverside counties from a designated central location. Participants will be supervised at all times and students may bring a small amount of spending money for extra snacks or souvenirs.