Open-Ended Responses

Future RCHC Topics

- Housing
- Listening sessions/lived experiences
- Health Equity
- Community Engagement
- Community Initiatives
- Senior Health
- IEHP
- Social Determinants of Health
- Emergency Preparedness

Additional Comments

- Market the RCHC more because most attendees are government personnel.
- Attendees praised the breakout sessions.
- More time for community engagement.
- Increase the time to network and invite more people from the community.
- For virtual participants, keep the Jamboard open throughout the meeting to provide more engagement from the audience with feedback.
- Provide better instructions for the sticky note app in the breakout rooms. One person mentioned they did not know they had to move to a different page to get past the instructions portion.

Additional Suggestions

- Create networking opportunities within departments so that attendees are informed on what is available for them to utilize and network with key figures of priority areas.
- Include key personnel from community to be included in meetings.
- Invite CBOs, faith-based organizations, and other non-traditional partners to highlight the work that they do.
- Vary meeting times/days to allow more community members to attend.
